

Enjoy a “little night music” in The Library Bar,
with live entertainment six nights a week.

Fans of smooth cocktails and sophisticated songs will find that everything you need for a memorable evening is as close as The Library Bar. One of the city’s long-time favorite spots for live music, The Library Bar features five world-class musicians playing in an intimate setting, just for you.

Erik Barnes

7 P.M. - MIDNIGHT, TUESDAY - FRIDAY

Dallas’ “piano man” has been delighting patrons of the Library Bar for more than 15 years, including notables like Bobby Short, Alanis Morissette, Gregory Hines and John Mayer. Whether it’s romantic ballads “when love is in the air” or upbeat tunes for business types who need to decompress, Erik says “the room isn’t about me, it’s about the people who inhabit it.”

Aubree-Anna

8:30 P.M. - 1 A.M., SATURDAY

This singer, songwriter and recording artist is a super-star in the making. She was featured on the cover of the August 2009 D Magazine “Best of Big D” issue as the Best Lounge Singer. D enthuses, “She’s gorgeous, friendly, and she’ll sing your favorites—everything from Billie Holiday to Diana Krall to Beyonce” (Hear her at www.aubree-anna.com.)

Jennifer Perryman

8 P.M. - MIDNIGHT, MONDAYS

“Rainy days and Mondays” will never get you down when being serenaded by Jennifer Perryman. Jennifer’s distinctive musical approach has been described simply as soulful. Her music is a powerful blend of seriousness and whimsy, embracing the ultra hip modern while paying homage to the nostalgic.

Pat Peterson

5 P.M. - 7 P.M.,
THURSDAY, FRIDAY

A former Raelette (backup singer for Ray Charles), Pat has performed around the world with other superstars such as John Mellencamp, Pink Floyd, Tom Petty and the Heartbreakers, Pat Benatar, The Bee Gees and Elton John. Come hear her play and sing everything from Unforgettable and It Had To Be You to Killing Me Softly.

Brad Williams

5 P.M. - 7 P.M. WEDNESDAY

This “jazz baby” specializes in piano music for The Library Bar. His versions of everything from Cole Porter to Gershwin to light jazz serve as a backdrop as the business meetings of the day are wrapped up and evening is ushered in.
